Glorify God, Make Disciples of Jesus Christ, and Meet Human Needs

GATHERING

Lord, during this season of Advent, this season of "coming," this season of "arrival," may our spiritual eyes be open to see You. May we see You – with sincere gratitude when You came to earth in the flesh to solve our sin problem. May we see You – with deep conviction just like when we accepted You as our Lord and Savior. May we see You – with great excitement as The One Who will come back again to gather Your adopted brothers and sisters to live in Your glory forever. Thank You for the hope of the Gospel! In Jesus name I pray, Amen.

WORDS OF WELCOME

PRELUDE Advent Prayer — M. Patterson

Delaney Geiser, soloist

A light will shine to show us the way, lighting the darkness, bright'ning the day. A light will shine to show us the way. Bright star, come quickly and guide us, we pray. A child will come to show us the way; born in a manger on a soft bed of hay. A child will come to show us the way. Christ child, come quickly and guide us, we pray. The Savior comes to show us the way. What will he teach us, what will he say? The Savior comes to show us the way. Savior, come quickly and guide us, we pray.

* CALL TO WORSHIP

O Christ, in light of such promised glory, teach me…

even in my grief, to hearken afresh to Your redemption.

O Christ, in light of such promised glory, teach me…

even in my fear, to hearken afresh to Your redemption.

O Christ, in light of such promised glory, teach me…

even in my doubt, to hearken afresh to Your redemption.

Let me increasingly live and move and breathe inside Your shining promises.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, in my wretched and desperate places, in my weakness, in my wounds, and in times I have wounded, in my corrosive pride, in my shallow dreams, in my cynicism, in my ambitions for self, may I bring my sin to You. May I confess in these and other areas where I have chosen anything other than You, anyone other than You, any desire or direction that was not Yours. Convict me of my sin and hear my prayer. And now, O Lord, transform us as we continue our confession in silence.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, Believe the Good News of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* ACT OF PRAISE Gloria Patri — Hymn 581

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

*All that are able please stand. Please take a moment to silence all electronic devices for worship. Thank you.

Responding

* Affirmation of Faith

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

For more information, visit https://specialofferings.pcusa.org/offering/christmas-joy/

Today is the First Sunday of Advent: "The Coming of the Son of Man." During this season of Advent, we prepare for Christ's coming. In the prelude, "Advent Prayer," we hear that "A light will shine to show us the way," "A child will come to show us the way," and finally "The Savior comes to show us the way." The gathering hymn, "Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus," is from the JESUS CHRIST: ADVENT section of the Glory to God Hymnal. As noted in the description for this hymn, 'With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming").' Each Advent, we mark the four weeks of Advent leading up to Christmas with an advent wreath. In order, the candles represent HOPE, PEACE, JOY, and LOVE. Today's anthem, "Will You Light a Candle," points to the tradition of lighting candles for Advent, while also asking the question of whether we will bring HOPE, PEACE, JOY, and LOVE to our community. The composer, Katie Houts, was the Children's Choir Director at the 2026 Montreat Worship & Music Conference. At the conference, she seemed to indicate that she wrote this piece while wrestling with how to help her community in a time of violence. The hymn of the day, "Just as I Am, without One Plea, " and sending hymn, "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling," were suggested for this beginning to the Advent Season. The Gospel reading for today is Mark 13:24-27. The beginning of verse 25, "and the stars will be falling from heaven," is heard in our offertory, "My Lord, What a Mornin'." While the offertory setting is by Harry Burleigh, this African American spiritual is also found in our Glory to God Hymnal in the CHRIST'S RETURN AND JUDGMENT section. The description for Hymn #352 begins with "This spiritual reflects on Jesus' saying about the endtimes as recorded in Matthew 24:29-30/Mark 13:24-26." As you go on your way, the postlude setting of this spiritual starts out softly and prayerfully, becomes loud and majestic, then returns to a quiet ending.

Action for the Week: Share the hope of the gospel with someone this week. If you don't know the hope of the gospel, reach out to someone who you know does.

Thank you for joining us in worship today. We pray that you experience Christ's presence in our midst and that His presence will sustain you in the week ahead.

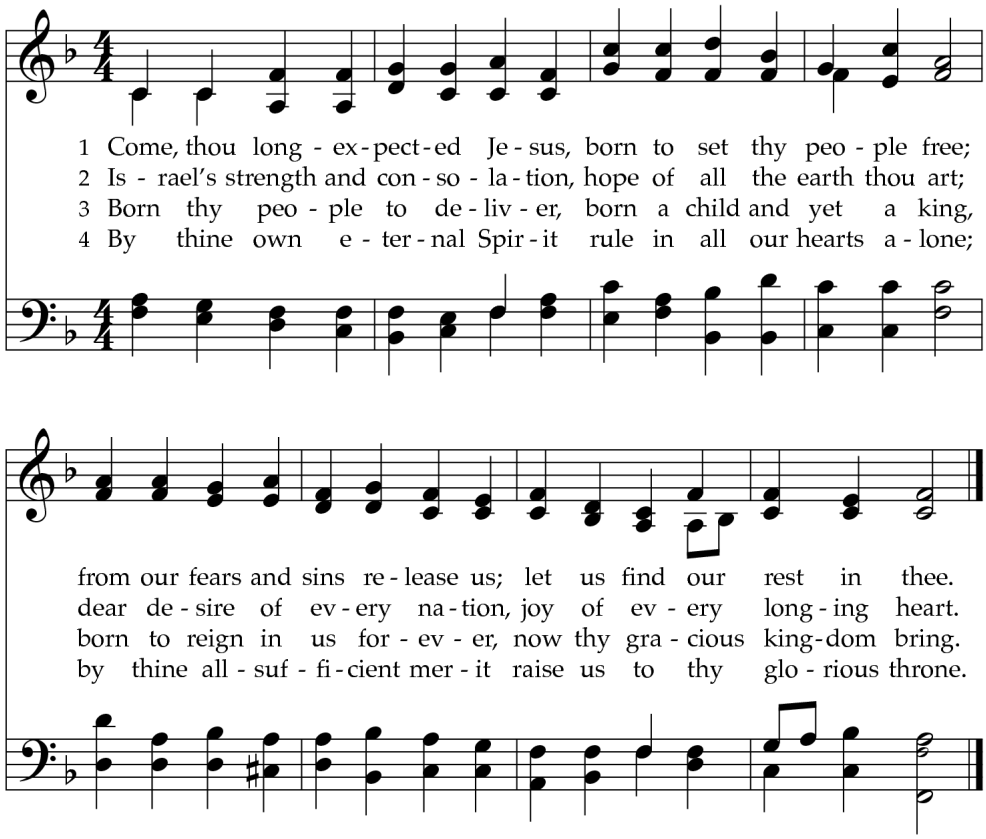
83 Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus



With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming"). Its blending of memory and hope helps us to give voice to our present faith as we stand between the past and the future.

TEXT: Charles Wesley, 1744
MUSIC: Witt's Psalmodia Sacra, 1715, alt.

STUTTGART
8.7.8.7
(alternate tune: HYFRYDOL, 82)

Old Testament Reading Psalm 18:1-18 (NRSV)

1 I love you, O Lord, my strength. 2 The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. 3 I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, so I shall be saved from my enemies.
4 The cords of death encompassed me; the torrents of perdition assailed me; 5 the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me.
6 In my distress I called upon the Lord; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears.
7 Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations also of the mountains trembled and quaked, because he was angry. 8 Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth;
glowing coals flamed forth from him. 9 He bowed the heavens, and came down; thick darkness was under his feet. 10 He rode on a cherub, and flew; he came swiftly upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness his covering around him, his canopy thick clouds dark with water. 12 Out of the brightness before him there broke through his clouds hailstones and coals of fire. 13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice. 14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; he flashed forth lightnings, and routed them. 15 Then the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, O Lord, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
16 He reached down from on high, he took me; he drew me out of mighty waters. 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity; but the Lord was my support.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading Mark 13:24-37 (NRSV)

24 "But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, 25 and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.
26 Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. 27 Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.
28 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. 30 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
32 "But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. 34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. 35 Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, 36 or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. 37 And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

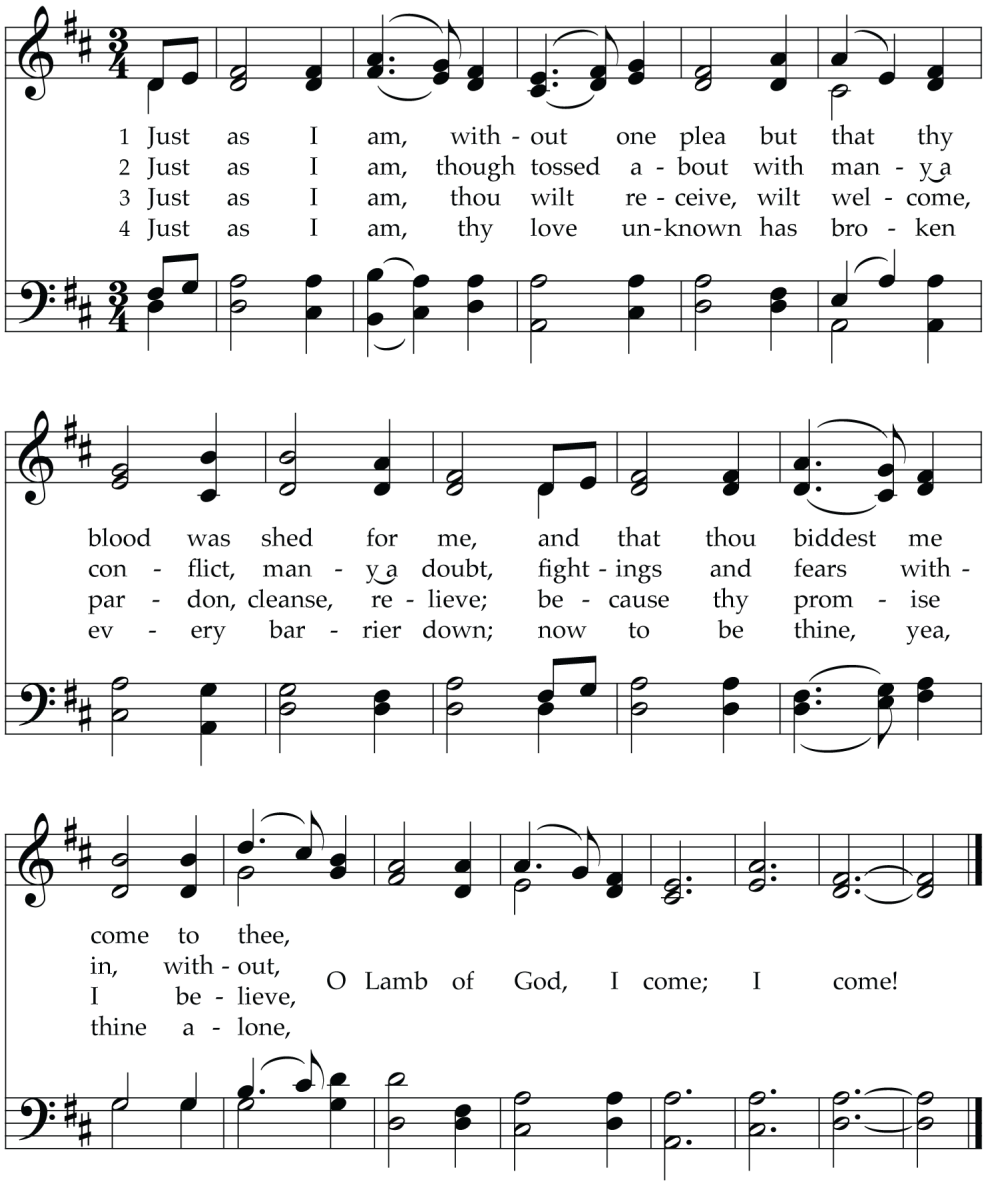
This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

FORGIVENESS

442 Just as I Am, without One Plea



When illness limited her involvement in a bustling household, the author wrote this hymn that helped her both to achieve and to express a renewed sense of worth grounded in Christ's self-giving. Its simple, direct, and deeply felt language has made it a source of comfort to many.

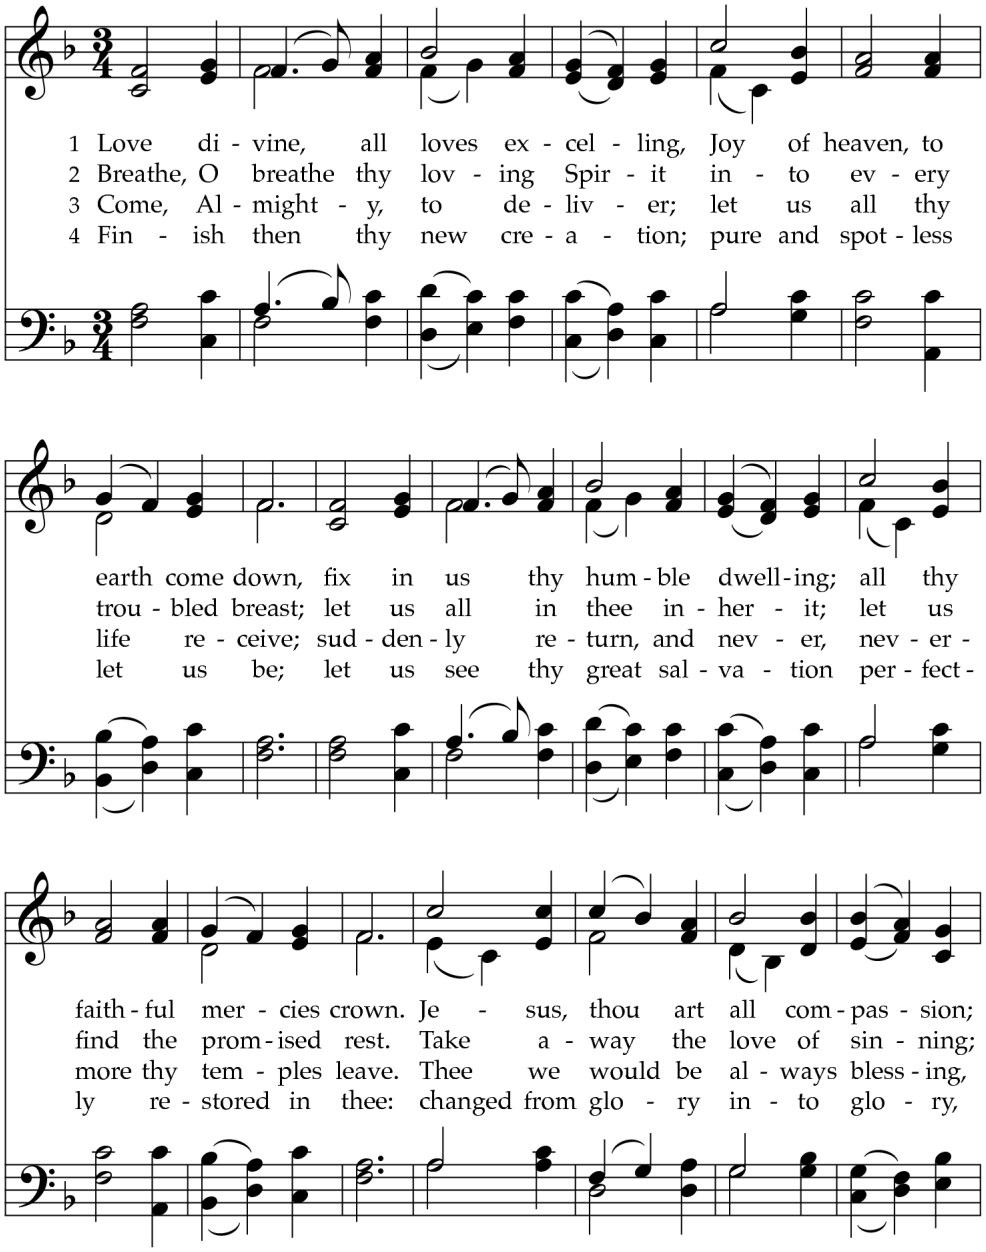
CHRIST'S RETURN AND JUDGMENT

366 Love Divine, All Loves Excelling



This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.
