Glorify God, Make Disciples of Jesus Christ, and Meet Human Needs

GATHERING

Holy One, I begin today breathing in your love for me, for others, and for the world. Keep me mindful of all the marvelous things you are doing around and within me. Help me to feel my friendship with Jesus and his confidence in me. Amen.

WORDS OF WELCOME

PRELUDE (11 A.M.)

Take My Life

C. Courtney

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee; take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of Thy love. Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for Thee; take my voice and let me sing always, only, for my King. Take my silver and my gold, not a mite would I withhold; take my moments and my days, let them flow in ceaseless praise. Take my will and make it Thine, it shall be no longer mine; take my heart; it is Thine own, it shall be Thy royal throne.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Amazing Grace

J. Althouse

Alison Barat, conductor

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found, was blind, but now I see. Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come. 'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home. When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun. Amazing grace, how sweet the sound.

* DOXOLOGY

Hymn 606

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

* THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WELCOME OUR NEWEST MEMBERS Norah Barat and Parker Lundy. They publicly professed their faith before our Session on Wednesday, April 24 and we celebrate their confirmation in worship this morning.

THE FLOWERS IN WORSHIP are given to the glory of God and in memory of Helen by Mort Wolfson.

CHURCH TRIUMPHANT: We extend our sympathy and offer the prayers of our congregation to the Polk family and Margaret Weech upon the passing of her brother, Jack Polk, who joined the Church Triumphant on April 26, 2024.

Thank you for joining us in worship today. We pray that you experience Christ's presence in our midst and that His presence will sustain you in the week ahead. Visitors are welcome to participate in the worship and the work of First Presbyterian Church. You can find a "Three Steps to Membership" card with information about how to join the church in the pew racks. If you feel a call to commit your life to Jesus Christ and His Church, please speak to the pastor or an elder after worship.

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment, and offering forgiveness. I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior. Amen. (If you are saying this prayer for the first time today, please let the pastor or elders on duty know.)

331 God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It features a treble and bass clef. The first system includes an optional triplet of eighth notes in the treble clef. The lyrics are arranged in four systems, each corresponding to a line of music. The final system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

This hymn was generated by 19th-century centennial celebrations: the words by the Declaration of Independence and the music by the adoption of the United States Constitution. Despite these origins, no specific nation is mentioned in this hymn of praise and prayer for peace.

NEW TESTAMENT READING

James 5:13-20 (NRSV)

¹³Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. ¹⁴Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. ¹⁷Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. ¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, ²⁰you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Esther 5 (NRSV)

¹On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, opposite the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne inside the palace opposite the entrance to the palace. ²As soon as the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she won his favor and he held out to her the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter. ³The king said to her, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you, even to the half of my kingdom." ⁴Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a banquet that I have prepared for the king." ⁵Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. ⁶While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." ⁷Then Esther said, "This is my petition and request: ⁸If I have won the king's favor, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and then I will do as the king has said."

⁹Haman went out that day happy and in good spirits. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and observed that he neither rose nor trembled before him, he was infuriated with Mordecai; ¹⁰nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home. Then he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh, ¹¹and Haman recounted to them the splendor of his riches, the number of his sons, all the promotions with which the king had honored him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and the ministers of the king. ¹²Haman added, "Even Queen Esther let no one but myself come with the king to the banquet that she prepared. Tomorrow also I am invited by her, together with the king. ¹³Yet all this does me no good so long as I see the Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate." ¹⁴Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows fifty cubits high be made, and in the morning tell the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go with the king to the banquet in good spirits." This advice pleased Haman, and he had the gallows made.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Many people sing this hymn unaware that it paraphrases Psalm 90, partly because this text speaks so immediately to the human condition. Since the middle of the 19th century, it has usually been joined to this tune named for the London parish where the composer was organist.

FOCUS ON STEWARDSHIP

I was introduced to stewardship seventy-five years ago by my mother when she placed a nickel in my hand on the way to church. That nickel never left my hand until I placed it proudly in the collection basket of my Sunday school class.

I knew nothing about the mission of our church and its financial requirements. I did know that I was doing something for the Lord. Today, I feel that same pride as I place my pledge envelope in the collection plate, but now, I understand the needs of our various programs at First Presbyterian Church. Please join me as we review some of the ways you can pledge your time and talents to help accomplish the mission of our church.

Come to worship on Sunday morning and let the sounds of the organ, the choir, and the congregation surround you. Pray to God with others as part of the great church universal. Take the words of the sermon home and reflect upon them the rest of the week. Come to Gordon Hall on a Wednesday evening and marvel at the joy and enthusiasm of the young people in the LOGOS program. Spend an evening or a night at the church as a host to homeless families and enjoy the security and comfort that we offer them. Assist a group of mothers and fathers in baking pies to raise funds for the Youth Music Conference at Montreat, NC. When asked, please agree to serve as a deacon, elder, trustee, or as a member of a committee. Spend a hour on a Sunday afternoon in the sanctuary and be inspired by the beautiful music of First Presbyterian's Concert Series.

As you increase your participation and awareness of these and the many other programs of our church, you will better appreciate the need for adequate funding. As you prepare your pledge card, don't ask, "What can I afford to give?" but rather, "How can I not afford to give generously to the work of God's church?"

Norah Barat

I believe that Jesus lives through us physically, emotionally, and spiritually ... that He will always be with me through thick and thin. He has called me to be His, and has claimed me as His own. I know that Jesus has planned out my life for me, and I should trust Him with those plans. The Lord has shown me His love and I do not take that for granted. I lay my life before Him and fully embrace all He has given me. I believe that Jesus died on the cross for my sins, and was resurrected at the right hand of God the Father almighty. Jesus died so I could live.

Parker Lundy

In Luke 24, verses 46-47, it says "46He told them, "This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, 47and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." This shows that Jesus did what He said He was going to do, He paid the ultimate sacrifice for us, because of His love. He did this for me way before I was born and could have earned it. So, I can not earn his love, but I should try to live according to how I have been unconditionally saved and loved, and pay it forward.

Presbyterian Women (PW) delivered three pounds of aluminum pull-tabs to Ronald McDonald House this week. RMCD House uses the proceeds from the tab tops to supply snacks and personal necessities for families staying there while their sick children are being treated at Shands Children's Hospital. This is an easy ministry for anyone to join in to let the families know we care for them. Just collect aluminum tab tops and drop them into the PW plastic hopper on the counter in the narthex.
