O Breathe on Me, O Breath of God

R. DeBruyn

Delaney Geiser, soprano

O breathe on me, O Breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love the things you love, and do what you would do. O breathe on me, O Breath of God, until my heart is pure; until my will is with yours, to do and to endure.
O breathe on me, O Breath of God, my will to yours incline, until this selfish part of me glows with your fire divine.
O breathe on me, O Breath of God, so shall I never die, but live with you the perfect life for all eternity.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have not lived as your faithful children. We have been angry with the world and nursed grudges against our adversaries. We have hoarded the fruits of our labors rather than share our bounty with the needy. We have not built up our neighbors with words of kindness but have indulged in evil gossip. We have not forgiven the wrongs others have done, even though we desire your forgiveness toward us in Jesus Christ. Heal us, O God, and give us the grace to love as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. Now, O Lord, transform us as we continue our confession in silence.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, Believe the Good News of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Lord, by the brightness of your light, your children sing and all unite in ev'ry land and tongue; Lord, let your name be sung. Lord, make us free, help us to see. Come, Jesus, be our guide, fear and sin be pushed aside. Lord, by your pow'r prepare each heart; faith for our changing world impart. * AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him for His mighty acts. Praise Him in the firmament of His power, Praise Him according to His excellent greatness. Praise Him! I will extol the Lord, my God, and I will bless His name forever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised. The Lord is righteous and holy, the Lord is gracious and kind; full of compassion, slow to anger; His tender mercies are over all His works; the Lord is good to all. Praise Him! Although it was written for a church dedication, this text is not about a physical structure but a spiritual one. The building is at best only a vessel for the essential love and hope, life and faith, peace and justice, hospitality and nurture that form the worshiping community.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Genesis 11:1-9 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup>Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. <sup>2</sup>And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup>And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. <sup>4</sup>Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. <sup>6</sup>And the Lord said, "Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech."

<sup>8</sup>So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore it was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

NEW TESTAMENT READING

Acts 2:1-21 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup>When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. <sup>4</sup>All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

<sup>5</sup>Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. <sup>7</sup>Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" <sup>8</sup>And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? <sup>9</sup>Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup>Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." <sup>12</sup>All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" <sup>13</sup>But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. <sup>15</sup>Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. <sup>16</sup>No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup>'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. <sup>18</sup>Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup>And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. <sup>20</sup>The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

<sup>21</sup>Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

What is LOGOS? LOGOS models the early church in Acts 2:42, "They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and prayers." LOGOS is a weekly intergenerational experience for young people that creates an arena where all ages together can learn about, experience, and practice the art of Christian relationships, critical for developing life-long disciples.

Who is LOGOS for? Children 3 years old to PreK, and their families, can participate in Alleluia choir, Bible story time, and Recreation and join in the Family time dinner. Children and Youth, grades K-12, have a full schedule, including designated recreation and a bell choir for older youth. Parents and congregation members are asked to prayerfully consider how they can use their gifts to sustain this ministry.

Why LOGOS? By intentionally dedicating a mid-week time and space for generations to learn and grow together, we live out the conviction that nurturing people, especially young people, into an abundant life-giving relationship with God through Jesus Christ is the most important thing the church ever does.

For more information about LOGOS and for volunteer training, gather in Room 201 on either Sunday, August 18 or 25 following worship for lunch, details, and answers to your questions. RSVP to communications@1stpc.org.
