ADVENT

from Mark Hults

Hello First Presbyterian Church Family,

Because of my job, I am always talking to people that are in crisis. They are or a family member is sick, a relative or a friend made a big mistake and the repercussions from it are horrible, or someone dear to them just passed. I'm not complaining about my job. In fact, it is the honor of my life to be called into the worst situations you and your family will ever experience. But during these moments I often hear, or see in your eyes, "It's not supposed to be like this! This isn't supposed to happen."

Your feeling that it isn't supposed to be like this in those moments, moments of tremendous loss or challenge, is spot on. It's not; yet it often is. These types of experiences are one of the ways we connect with our sense of longing. We do this in the season of Advent, as we move toward the coming of our true king, Jesus. We connect with the longing that the people of Israel had as they waited for their king.

Advent begins on November 30 and ends at our service on Christmas Eve. It is a time when we connect with the feelings of the ancient God-fearers as they longed for Jesus, their Messiah, to come to earth. We connect with their sense of longing as we wait for Jesus to come again, as we continue to experience things that we shouldn't have to experience. It is a time when we challenge the sense that says we are missing something, and have hope and trust in the One who is to come. During Advent this year, let's push into that dark place, believing that the light has come, and it will come again! And because of that, we can be people of hope, no matter what surrounds us.

With Much Hope,

To contact Pastor Mark,
email pastor@1stpc.org.

But as for me, I will look to the Lord, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.
Micah 7:7

BIBLE STUDY

from Fred Lundy

So here we are, another end of the year, Q4 (or for our church Q2) myriad of: Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years, and ALL that our personal and professional lives have to throw at us in about two months!

And as much as we might know what to expect during this part of the year (Straight. Up. CRAZY!), I will ask if you have thought about how you are going to spend some of your other time – specifically this time of Advent, when we look with expectation to the Christ Who came, Who offers to come into our life and Who will come again.

For Clarity – How are you going to engage with the Bible during this season?

The reason I ask is because I want to make sure you know of the ways in which you can be involved in Bible Study not just this time of year, but all throughout the year here at First Pres.

While the offerings below provide a lot of different options, one thing they all share is their faithfulness to spend time in God's word.

Please join us if you are not already.

AND, if you do not know where would be best for you, please reach out to me so I can help you find a group where you can grow together.

YOUTH:

If you are in Middle or High School, I invite you to join us on Wednesday nights from 4:15-5:00 p.m. in the Youth Room (Room # 211) as we study the Gospel of John and find out what this OG, first century, Gen 1 follower of Christ has to say about his time with The Messiah through his eyes and Jesus' own words.

If you are in High School, please join us -when we meet- on Sundays after church for Youth Connection from 12:30-2:30 p.m. in the Youth Room (Room # 211). We are working through the book, Can I Ask That: Volume 2: More Hard Questions About God & Faith. We start by eating lunch together, then have time together in God's word and play a game.

COLLEGE:

If you are in college we would love to have you join us on Tuesdays starting at 7:00 p.m. in Gordon Hall as different teachers lead us through the truths from God's word and how they impact and should be applied to our lives. Our hope is that while you are growing academically here in Gainesville, you will also grow in your Christian faith by spending time in the Bible and with others who are doing the same.

YOUNG ADULT AND FAMILY MINISTRY:

Men's Bible Study – I invite you to join this group as we continue to work through the minor prophets; the last twelve books of the Old Testament. Aware that personal and professional schedules are always changing, our meeting day changes to allow for the most people possible to make the meeting. Regardless of the date, our normal meeting time is typically from 6:00-7:30 a.m. at Starbucks on the corner of 53rd and 43rd.

Young Professionals Bible Study – I invite you to join this group, which focuses on those in grad school or just into their careers, reading through the Gospel of Luke. As with the group above, we are aware that personal and professional schedules are always changing, so our meeting day changes each month to allow for the most people possible to make the meeting. Regardless of the date, our normal meeting time is from around 7:00/7:30 p.m - 9:00 p.m. at McAlister's Deli on Newberry Road. (For this group, we know that you are just getting started in life, so the church covers the cost of your meal!)

SUNDAY MORNINGS:

Gordon Hoover – This is perhaps the longest continual Bible Study group in the loonnngggg history of First Pres and continues to focus on a book-by-book study of the Bible. Through a team of teachers, they take their time working through each book of the Bible in a way that leads to knowing more about the Word of God and the God of His word.

Multiply Class – I invite you to join this group which focuses on books of the Bible one chapter at a time, allowing the time the class needs to learn and discuss in hopes they go and do. This year they have focused on 1 Samuel and are ending the year focusing on the Gospel of Luke before continuing on to the book of Acts. This class also uses a team of teachers to enhance our time together.

TO THE SAINTS OF FPCG

from Scott Stuart

As I reflect on my 13 years here at First Presbyterian I am overwhelmed with the love and care you have shown me and my family during our time together. From mission trips to Nicaragua and Thornwell, countless College Café meals served, the number of College Sundays that have come through our doors, to the community outreaches we've done together including Veritas Forums, Hungry Week, and a number of football block parties.

And these are just to name a few. Then there are the overwhelming heart-filled moments like announcing the arrival of our daughter, baptizing your children, officiating weddings, walking with you all during loved ones' funerals, you all cheering me on as I completed my M-Div, Ordination, starting my D-Min, and so much more.

There are so many wonderful memories with you all both outside and inside these beautiful walls, there are simply too many to count.

When I first accepted the job here as Director of College Ministry, I never could have imagined the places I would get to go, the people I would get to meet, the stories I would get to hear. It is with these things in mind and more that it brings me great sorrow to tell you all that I have accepted another job as the Director of Next Generation at Christ Community here in Gainesville. While I am excited about the new opportunities before me, I can truly say that I am deeply going to miss all of you. My last day at First will be 9/14, but rather than say goodbye I will simply say...

*May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine all upon your face
And the rain fall soft upon your field
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of His hand
This day and forevermore
Amen*

With love and gratitude,

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT!

Lots of great things are happening and members of our church connected to each other, to the community, and to God through study, fun, and service. Enjoy the highlights below and commit to joining us in worship and growth this year.

Presbyterian Women met for the Triennial Gathering at Epworth by the Sea in Georgia. Several ladies from the church attended this weekend of fellowship and spiritual growth.

This year's concert series began with two fabulous concerts. The pictures below (as well as the Bugle cover) are from October. The Festival Singers of Florida were joined by the Gainesville High School Concert Choir in a concert entitled, Another Glorious Day.

The Preschool at First has been awarded an Excellence in Learning Certificate from the Early Learning Coalition. Of all the rated programs, they are fifth in the state and first in the county. Congratulations!

And that's not all!

Doctor Koinonia, our support group for young physician faculty, has met once a month for prayer and encouragement.

Our Local Missions was able to donate more than $1,200 for

Made for More, a local mentorship ministry for student-athletes, thanks to your generosity at the first Concert for a Cause.

The Senior Saints are meeting monthly on and off campus for fellowship and fun.

LOGOS is bursting at the seams with children, youth, and families every Wednesday! They spend time in worship, recreation, study, and family dinners.

There's lot more coming. We hope to see you soon!

Make a Joyful Noise to the Lord

First Presbyterian Church Concert Series 2025-2026

Celebrate Veterans Day with the Gainesville Community Band, directed by R. Gary Langford, in the sanctuary on Sunday, November 9 at 4 p.m. The concert program includes the theme from Gettysburg, Reflections from the Wall, and the Armed Forces Salute, along with additional patriotic pieces. A free-will offering benefits Filter of Hope, sharing clean water & the gospel with those in need. Join us for a spaghetti dinner in Gordon Memorial Hall after the concert. $5 per person; no charge for veterans.

On Sunday, December 7 at 5 p.m., come sing and hear lessons and carols for Advent and Christmas showing the development of the loving purposes of God as seen through the windows and words of scripture. At 4:30 p.m. the Gainesville Brass Quintet and First Presbyterian Jubilate Ringers present seasonal music. This Festival is patterned on the annual Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols of King's College, Cambridge, the backbone of which has remained virtually unchanged since it originated in England during the Victorian period. Gather in Gordon Hall following Lessons and Carols to enjoy our festival Christmas trees along with hot chocolate and cookies.

Join us on Friday, January 16 at 7 p.m. for a spectacular concert that plunges into the deepest, wildest corners of the sea. In addition to stunning visuals, this concert features Dance Alive National Ballet, the Gainesville Youth Chorus, our very own Chancel Choir, and guest musicians. From playful waves to treacherous storms and hidden treasures, this performance is a musical voyage guaranteed to leave you breathless!

STOCKING STUFFERS

The Montreat Committee invites you to shop for stocking stuffers at the Christmas table in Gordon Hall on Sundays, December 7, 14, & 21. All proceeds benefit the children and youth who will attend the 2026 Montreat Worship and Music Conference next summer.

CALLING ALL PIE MAKERS!

Pie making is a long-standing tradition of the Music Ministry. Our church family comes together on Fridays and Saturdays to make a variety of regular-sized and miniature (cutie) pies. Many pies are sold and some are donated to our homebound church members. Pies serve as a fundraiser to send an intergenerational group from our church to the Presbyterian Association of Music's Worship and Music Conference in Montreat, NC each June.

Please join us for any or all of our pie production days: Fridays and Saturdays from 9 am-1 pm in the weeks leading up to "Pie Day" which is the last Sunday before Thanksgiving (November 23). Don't worry, we can train you! Skills are perfected and community is built over pie dough in the First Presbyterian Church kitchen!

MONTREAT®

For more than thirty-five years children, youth, and adults from First Presbyterian Church have attended the Presbyterian Association of Musicians annual worship and music conference in Montreat, North Carolina. The week-long conference begins with a worship service on Sunday evening for the 1,000 conferees from Presbyterian Churches nationwide. Daily classes begin on Monday and are designed to enrich understanding and develop skills in the corporate worship of the church. Each conferee attends worship, choir, Bible, handbells, Orff, dance, and/or an elective course each day. The impact of this week at Montreat is far greater than the knowledge gained at the conference. The benefits of living, worshiping, praying, and playing together in community for a week are life-changing.

Each conferee pays approximately $400 for conference registration and $95 for food. In addition, each conferee is responsible for their "fairshare" of $150 for housing and transportation. The children earn their fairshare by participating in fundraising events held throughout the year. This year, our church budget allocates $10,000 towards the cost of housing and transportation. This year our goal for fundraising for Montreat housing and transportation expenses is $24,000.

The theme for June 20-27 is Who'll Be a Witness? Sign up to attend by November 10. Contact Mitch Rorick to learn more about the conference or to register

Two Montreat fundraising opportunities will be held in the month of November:

Downtown Art Festival Parking in the church SW 2nd Avenue Parking Lot on Saturday, November 15 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, November 16 beginning at 1 p.m. Thank you for your continued support.

Delicious Homemade Pies (Sweetie Pies) will be made on Fridays and Saturdays, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. in November for members and friends of the congregation. Please see the order form here, in the pews, or the church office.

To contact Mitch Rorick, email music@1stpc.org.

Praise the Lord! Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise in the assembly of the faithful."

Pies are available for order and pick-up now and freezer space gets very tight. Please make checks payable to First Presbyterian Church and put "pies" on the memo line. Put your order form in the offering plate, send it to the church office, or email fpcpie@gmail.com. Please do not leave payment in the back hallway. SHARE YOUR HOLIDAY SPIRIT WITH OUR COMMUNITY

The holidays this year are especially stressful for both families and agencies as they face more limited government funding. As you consider your holiday giving, please remember our community. Your generosity in following Jesus' command to meet human needs will impact lives with the hope of the Gospel! There are several ways to get involved:

Gainesville Community Ministries provides Thanksgiving Baskets to their clients. Turkeys are provided, but side dishes are needed to give families all the fixings for a special feast. Please bring your contributions to Gordon Hall or the church office by Wednesday, November 19.

Each year Local Missions invites you to join the Hope for the Holidays Christmas drive. Share the joy of the season by providing gifts to selected families from Family Promise and St. Francis House. We will also be collecting gift cards and cash. Look for the Hope for the Holidays Christmas tree in Gordon Hall! Look for more details in the weekly email from the church.

And of course, you may donate to these agencies through the church—just designate your gift and place it in the offering or mail it to the church office.

Thank you for participating and sharing God's love in a tangible way to these families!

ADVENT DECORATING

Advent is just around the corner. We are looking for volunteers to beautify our church and sanctuary. Everyone is welcome on Monday, November 24 at 9 a.m. Please call Marilyn Foote to be added to the volunteer list at 352-318-5975.

DARKNESS THEN LIGHT

We are recommending this Advent devotional from Christianity Today for individuals, small groups, and families. The devotional contains twenty-five readings for December, along with weekly reflection questions, based on the themes of light and darkness in scripture leading up to the birth of our Savior, Jesus. Copies can be purchased at the Christianity Today website: <https://store.christianitytoday.com/>.

But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord."
